

I concur with the proposal to provide a formal bandplan for the ham band, 160meters. I am of the opinion that having a formal band plan will have a positive impact on the amateur service in general.